++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
South and east mainly dry, showers in the northwest Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers dying away during the evening, leaving many places dry overnight. However cloud thickening in Hebrides bringing the chance of some rain before dawn. Winds light.

Wednesday:
A few showers across the north and west, occasionally heavy in the northwest later. Central and southern areas drier with some sunshine. Warm.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Unsettled with scattered heavy showers, perhaps some longer spells of rain across the northeast on Friday. Quite warm in any sunshine.
